S.H. & H. Chapman, Numismatists

June 24, 1878

[A circular describing the particulars of the Chapman brothers coin dealing business venture. 3 copies.]

Philadelphia, 6th Mo., 24th, 1878.

Dear Sir:

We would respectfully inform you that after several years experience, we have formed a Co-partnership to carry on the business of Numismatists and Antiquaries in all branches.

We intend to deal especially in Fine Ancient, Foreign and American Coins and Medals, and Indian Antiquities.

We shall attend all Auction Sales in Philadelphia and New York, at which we have had large experience in both cities, and will send to you, on application, Catalogues of the various Sales, and would solicit your bids, which will be faithfully executed, charging the usual commission of 10 per cent.

We desire to purchase fine and rare coins, and will catalogue collections for sale at Auction in Philadelphia or New York. If requested, the owners will be furnished with unexceptionable reference.

Coins will be sent on approval and selection when desired.

Very respectfully,

S. H. & H. Chapman.

A Conversation between Mr L. G. Pomeroy and Henry Chapman Jr in Bangor (auction rooms) [illegible]

Nov. 30. 81.

[illegible] Pomeroy said "Mr Smith has been showing me his estimates of the Burbank collection and he values the books, cabinet &c at $150 & $200. and Ingalls, who then said "You the collection for $ thousand and sell it to me at ... and make the cabinet, Books, & dies ... one main object (Pomeroy) but ... said "I not $ thousand, you pay for the collection I said "He will not bill you at any person, & he said "then you [illegible] him it over to me at 10 thousand make the books cabinet & dies besides the cash, and make a good thing out of it, which I do not begrudge you, as you have worked hard with him and it, the only thing is I want ... you to pay me too much" I said "we did not and were not doing it (Mr Chapman) would work and do our utmost for the sale & paying us ... trouble" He said "you are going to charge me 15% ... to which I replied "that we would not and could not do it for 15% He said "your brother said you would do it for that". I ... he never said so as I know he always said 20% and he would ... of doing it for that, but that I would ask him if he had said so" (My ... denies the impeachment)

Pomeroy did not in any way state or mention that he thought ... to return if we took him ... whatever we said to it

In fact his statement of terms were distinct and as they stated in the conversation which took place,

I also told Mr. Hall at 20 to com. we intended to charge only small com by Barge on the final varieties which it was understood he was to buy in said if you will do that, it is all right

Yours Truly
Henry Chapman

A conversation between

Mr L. L. Parmelee and Henry Chapman (?)

in Messrs Bangs & Co's auction rooms, New York

11th Mo 30th 1881

Mr Parmelee said "Mr Smith has been showing me his animals of the Bushnell collection and he values his birds and cabinet between $150. and $200." I said "I guess"

He then said "Can buy the collection for $9000 and sell it to me for $10 ten thousand, and make the cabinet, books, and birds" He then said "Is it not $10 thousand you pay for the collection?" I said "I will tell you or any person." He said "Then you pay $9 nine thousand, how much more do you will? Can make the books, birds, and cabinet worth the cost, and make a good thing out of it, which I do not begrudge you, as you have worked hard and have earned the only thing is I do not want you to take me by the hand," I said "He did not and we did not desire it but would work and do our utmost for the sparing any expense or trouble" He said "You are going charge me 15% for cataloguing," to which I replied, "I would not or could not do it for that" He said "Your brother and you would do it for that" I said, "He would do so I know he always said 20% and he is all I think I am doing it for that" but that I would ask him if he had so. (He said 15%)

Mr Chandler did not in any way state or mention that I thought he were to have it over to him at what he had paid for it. On my back his statement of the terms that had been agreed upon for over a year and more distinct and more clear than in the conversation which took place, and which I have written out.

I also told David that if 20% commission or interest I had to share any profit a small commission but I was on the great qualities which it was understood he was going to buy in. He said "if we will do that it will be all right"

My dear Papa & Mamma.

Your two very welcome letters full of good suggestions. Decid, What a lot of trouble we have had!

Bushnell say "dont take if you do not want to" We will not do any thing else" they said to day, that they had not any idea of any other pieces, but if they ever found them they would give us the word & how they would turn them over to us, we asked them to put it on paper but the refused and said they would not give a reason for so doing. this looks bad and we told them so.

We told them the pieces must be sold or their value deducted and left them with this, to call again at 5 P.M. They deny any thing that will harm us, may make them bring us prices. X

It is a difficult matter to know what to do. but however will do our best. Sorry to hear of John R Shannons death would like to have been at the funeral. Have Adams Ex, Co look up that bill of lading of Lancefields pkg it was tied with the pkg. Marks Invoice.

Have just looked over our lists and believe Pannelee will come out whole at nine thousand and paying commis 15% on whole. Do think we will go ahead but will not decide to night with Johnnie will take our time and do our utmost.

Have not yet seen Sythe though have called there.

With love from both we are yours affectionately

I desire to inform you that I have started in business for myself and solicit your kind patronage

Dear Sir

I have been for the past Eight years the active managing member of the late firm of S.H. & H. Chapman dealing in Ancient and Modern Coins, Medals and Paper Money of every description since 1875 and to the furtherance of the same business all my knowledge, time and energies will now be devoted Even more assiduously if that were possible than in the past.

Starting in 1875 with John W. Haseltine the [illegible] dealer in the United States I remained in his employ until 1878 when with my brother S.H. Chapman the firm of S.H. & H. Chapman was established and has been uninterrupted in existence from then until now when it was mutually dissolved by Mutual Consent I occupy the same house where we have been for over [illegible] years and will conduct the business on the same lines as governed the late firm — I deal in genuine coins only, Give a guarantee with every coin or medal sold. Treat Collectors with liberality, integrity and courtesy. Have made our third policy my business motto since 1875 and intend to further [illegible]

Prompt payment for coins sold at auction.
Cash for coins purchased at private sale.
In these lines our sale forms reaches the top of the business in this Country and it is my intention not to recede from that high position but to further merit the confidence and respect of every Numismatist by courteous and fair treatment to everyone whether a large or small purchaser. It may be well to add here that I am personally known to a large number of American Collectors and from numerous trips abroad personally acquainted with dealers and collectors in Europe.

I start in business for myself with a large and fine stock of Coins both Ancient and Modern and in every Series and Metal and it is my ambition to increase that stock at every opportunity during

For thirty years I have noticed the sending of parcels of such Coins, etc as the collector was interested in to him for approval and selection to be the most satisfactory - he then having the opportunity to judge the preservation and price. To such as send Bank or other reference Establishing their responsibility I will send a liberal parcels on approval, often they have stated about what coins are wanted and the preservation desired. Prices will be as low as possible and good value given to every one.

Cataloguing and arranging Collections for sale at auction will be one of my strong points, and Collectors are familiar with my Statements of condition and manner of cataloguing owing to the many and important Catalogues issued by the late firm of S.H. & H. Chapman mark, all of which were from my pen. I will add a here that the interests of both seller and buyer will be treated with fairness - the coins etc described as they are in my judgement: which it is gratifying to be able to state has given satisfaction in nearly Every instance to American Collectors.

Early in the Fall I expect to hold several sales - the collection of U.S. Coins of the late R.B. Leeds, of Atlantic City, the largest collection of Paper Money ever offered, the property of the late H. A. Chambers of Philadelphia
